"ONCE A BOREHAMITE, ALWAYS A BOREHAMITE"

BOOKS by F. W. BOREHAM

The popular essayist of Scotland and Australia

A REEL OF RAINBOW

FACES IN THE FIRE

MOUNTAINS IN THE MIST

MUSHROOMS ON THE MOOR

THE SILVER SHADOW

THE LUGGAGE OF LIFE

THE GOLDEN MILESTONE

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE HILL
And Home Again

THE UTTERMOST STAR
And Other Gleams of Fancy

A BUNCH OF EVERLASTINGS
Or, Texts That Made History

F. W. Boreham touches nothing which he does not adorn with the sparkling brightness of a Fourth of July Roman candle.

His books of essays have already won for him a wide popularity in England and he is rapidly being discovered in America. His books are more than essays; they are motion pictures of a phosphorescent mind. His subjects are of a wide range, and each one is treated with beauty and distinction.

The happy high-heartedness of him is so infectious that to read him is a sheer delight. There are about him no barbed-wire entanglements of formal rhetoric or ambitious style. We are in immediate touch with a mind that is mellow, quaint, and richly original.

12mo. Cloth. Price, per volume, net, $1.75, postpaid.

Sessions of the Virginia Annual Conference

(Note.—Six Conferences were held in Virginia before the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States was organized, and five of them were held within the territory of the Virginia Annual Conference. But they were not, strictly speaking, Virginia Annual Conferences. Hence these Conferences do not appear among the sessions enumerated below. The Annual Conferences proper number their sessions, respectively, from their first meeting after the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church as an independent ecclesiastical body, December, 1784. In conformity with this rule, the sessions of the Virginia Annual Conference are numbered from the meeting held at Mason's, Brunswick County, Virginia, May, 1785. Since then sessions thereof have been held in regular succession, year after year, within the geographical limits assigned it by the General Conference of 1796, except as to the years 1791 and 1841, when changes in the time of the year of the meeting of the Conference made it necessary to hold two sessions in each of these calendar years, making one hundred and thirty-nine sessions in one hundred and thirty-seven years.)

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS, 1921.

First Day

Wednesday, October 19, 1921.

Opening.—The one hundred and thirty-ninth session of the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was held in Centenary Church, Richmond, Virginia, beginning Wednesday, October 19th, 1921, at 9:00 A. M., with Bishop W. F. McMurry presiding. (The opening sermon was preached by J. T. Routten, on Tuesday evening, October 18th.)

Devotional Service.—Devotional services were conducted by Bishop McMurry, followed by administration of the Lord's Supper by Bishop Collins Denny, who was assisted in this service by J. C. Reed, J. T. Whitley, W. W. Royall, L. J. Phaup, and B. F. Lipscomb.

Roll Call.—The roll was called by B. F. Lipscomb, secretary of the last Conference, and 216 clerical and 56 lay members answered to their names.

Organization.—B. F. Lipscomb was elected Secretary of the Conference, and F. L. Wells and R. M. White assistant secretaries.

Hour for Meeting.—The hours of meeting and adjournment daily were fixed at 9:00 A. M. and 1:00 P. M. respectively.

Bar of Conference.—The bar of the Conference was determined by a line drawn across the room at the near side of the rear window from the chancel.

Letter from Bishop Hendrix.—A letter from Bishop E. R. Hendrix advising of his inability to attend the Conference by reason of his present illness was read, and on motion the Secretary was instructed to send a message of love and affection to Bishop Hendrix, with the prayer that he may have speedy recovery.

Committees Elected.—The following committees were elected:

Committee to nominate the Committee on Conference Relations: J. C. Reed, N. B. Foushee, and W. L. Ware.

Committee on Public Worship: M. S. Colonna, J. F. Carey, G. W. Wray, H. W. Dunkley, L. T. Williams.

Committee to examine the District Conference Records: J. B. Askew, J. G. Unruh, A. P. Williams, E. B. Loving, J. W. Bouldin, J. T. Green, J. H. Duane, N. B. Foushee, W. J. Boyd, and W. S. Deyerle.

Committee on Memoirs: J. C. Reed, T. McN. Simpson, J. W. Moore, and W. W. Royall.

On motion, a committee of one preacher and one layman from each of the Presiding Elders' Districts, was elected, on nomination of the Presiding Elders, as a Committee on Memorials to the General Conference, as follows: H. P. Myers, H. N. Perkins, J. T. Allen, J. T. Catlin, C. C. Bell, A. W. Short, W. A. Christian, Lucius Gregory, J. M. Rowland, E. Sumter

Smith, H. C. Pfeiffer, J. H. Brownley, J. B. Winn, T. W. Murphy, H. P. Clarke, E. F. Story, G. H. McFaden, G. N. Reed, H. W. Dunkley, and N. D. Sills.

Communications Referred.—Communications were received and referred as follows:

From the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College presenting the name of E. S. Carlton as a trustee of the College, referred to the Board of Education.

From the General Board of Education referred to the Conference Board of Education;

Celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Coming of Robert Williams.—J. W. Moore offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

“Whereas, in 1772 Robert Williams began his great work in Virginia that under God’s blessing has developed into what is now known as the Virginia Conference; and,

Whereas this Conference year will mark the 150th anniversary of his coming to our territory; and,

Whereas, in these troublous times we realize that the greatest need of our Church and nation is a sweeping revival of religion;

Therefore, be it resolved, that we think it fitting that this 150th anniversary should be celebrated by an evangelistic campaign that shall be Conference-wide in extent.

Resolved, secondly, that we request the evangelistic committee of the Board of Missions to devise methods by which this may be done.

A STATEMENT

A Statement by B. M. Beckham.—In connection with the case of Rev. H. W. Neville I wish to state that conditions arose during his pastorate at Stuart that convinced me that it was best for him to give up his work. In accordance with the provisions of our Church law I should have appointed a Committee of investigation at that time, and regret that I failed to pursue this course. I intended no injustice to brother Neville, but did what I believed was best for him and for the Church.

Richmond, Va. B. M. BECKHAM,
October 26, 1921. Presiding Elder.

APPENDIX II.—MEMOIRS

Rev. Charles W. Cain

By J. W. MOORE

How imperfectly we understand a life. Its inner sources must always remain to us unknown. We see the stream flowing over the rocks or loitering amidst the meadows and we appraise the stream by what we see. But unseen, in the heart of the mountains lie its sources. So hidden from the eyes of men is the heart life, the real life of a man, faintly and imperfectly known, often mis-apprehended and mis-interpreted, awaiting the revelations of the judgement. Happy is he who has the sources of his life hidden "With Christ in God."

Charles Wesley Cain was born in the City of Portsmouth, Virginia, January 14, 1856. He spent his earlier boyhood amidst interesting and exceedingly trying circumstances. The dark clouds of civil strife hung menacingly on the horizon at the time of his birth. His childish eyes beheld with wonder the pomp and pageantry of war. His youth was spent in the darker years of re-construction, when Virginia was endeavoring to emancipate herself from carpet-bag control and establish a school system for the training of her youth.

In the midst of these exciting years the pious parents of Brother Cain maintained their christian integrity and gave religious instruction to their household. It was a great calamity to the eleven year old boy when he was bereft of both parents. The only legacy that they left their children was the memory of a christian home. But after all, this is the richest legacy possible.

Who can adequately tell the heroic endeavor of these years of adversity. Doubtless they left a deep imprint, both on soul and body. Youth had its dream and a great ambition, but the fettered soul, like the caged bird, struggled hard for its freedom from ignorance and other limitations. Fortunately there came into the life of Brother Cain the influence of a Sabbath-school teacher, who was a woman of refinement and education, and possessed a sympathetic heart. Under her leadership in September 1871, when a lad of fifteen, he gave himself to Christ and was happily converted in Monumental Church. With redoubled diligence this newly born soul gave himself to study and to prayer. He felt that God had a work for him to do in the christian ministry and that he must prepare to do it.

So, in 1879, he sought and obtained a license to preach. At that time he was teaching school in Norfolk County but this did not preclude his exercising his gifts and showing his usefulness. In the summer of 1880 Brother Cain was appointed by Dr. E. M. Peterson, a Presiding Elder, to take charge of Clarksville Station, the Rev. James Jamieson having died at his post. In the autumn of this year Brother Cain joined the conference on trial and was returned to Clarksville, where he labored for two years. In November 1882, having finished his course of study for full connection, Brother Cain was ordained deacon and stationed on the Orange Circuit, where he labored for two years. Having been ordained elder in 1884 he was assigned to the Belle Haven circuit where, after one year, it was necessary to change him because of failing health. In 1885 he was removed to the mountains, the Mt. Pleasant work being his field of labor. In 1887-1888 Brother Cain was assigned to the Henrico Circuit and was returned to that work the next year at the unanimous request of the official body. Our North Carolina territory having been transferred to the North Carolina Conference, for four years Brother Cain was a member of that body. But his heart was back in Virginia and in the fall of 1895 he was transferred to his home conference and assigned to the Nottoway Circuit, where he made full proof of his ministry for two years. His last three years of active work were spent on the Cambridge Circuit. In the year 1900 Brother Cain was placed on the honor roll of the conference, which relationship he sustained until his death. On the 22nd day of November, 1882, Miss Sallie A. Cherry of Portsmouth, Virginia, united her fortunes to that of the young itinerant and for thirty-nine years proved a faithful and devoted wife. To this union there was born nine children, seven of whom survive. To the father the house-hold was loyal in life and to his memory devoted.

The writer of this memoir had no opportunity of hearing Brother Cain preach but had heard him lead in prayer. In this he was specially gifted. His words were well chosen, his attitude betokened a reverent soul, and his prayers, taken as a whole, were models of devotional speech.

On the evening of February the fifth Brother Cain left his home to attend a meeting of the lodge of Odd Fellows. Whilst on the way because of failing vision, he did not see the automobile that was about to pass and stepped in front of it. He was immediately after the accident carried to the hospital where his wounds were examined and pronounced harmless. Soon after returning to his own home he suffered great pain and quickly lapsed into unconsciousness from which he never recovered and his soul passed out of that darkness into the glorious light of heaven on the fifth day of February, 1921.

A great concourse of friends and relatives assembled in Monumental Church to do honor to his memory and forth from the church of his early years of struggle, from the church where he had been licensed to preach, he was borne to the cemetery where his body awaits the resurrection morn.

"Weep not a brother deceased,
Our loss is his infinite gain;
A soul out of prison released,
And freed from its bodily chain;
With songs let us follow his flight
And mount with his spirit above,
Escaped to the mansions of light
And lodged in the Eden of love."

This is the first conference since Brother Cain joined that he has failed to answer to the roll call. Oft-times in feebleness extreme he dragged his unwilling body by the power of his will to our annual gatherings. He loved to meet his brethren and to listen to the conference proceedings. He has now answered to the roll call on high, where there are no limitations of any sort or kind and where he may tell the story of the Saviour's love to eager listeners that never tire in hearing the praises of Him "who loved them and gave Himself for them."

Rev. Charles F. Comer

By J. C. REED

An extended and eulogistic memoir would not be in keeping with the character and wishes of Rev. Charles F. Comer. He was one of the most unassuming and modest of men. He shunned the lime-light and sought the quiet shade of duty well done.

But such a steady burning light could not be hidden. He glorified God and blessed men.

From the beginning of his ministry to its close, his life was like a deep quiet stream, increasing in depth and volume as it flowed; upon whose banks there bloomed the sweetest flowers and upon whose fertile meadows there grew abundant harvests. By example, precept and preaching, he "wooed others to heaven and led the way."

He was the son of Francis and Ellen R. Comer, and was born May 28, 1853, in Prince George County, Va. At the age of fourteen he was physically strong and mentally alert. He desired and sought diligently an education. This he acquired through his own efforts. He spent four years at the University of Virginia, teaching at the same time a family school near by. For two years he was a student in the Vanderbilt University and spent his vacation in preaching in Davidson County, Tennessee.

He was converted at the age of sixteen and felt immediately his call to preach the gospel. Having equipped himself for his life's work, he was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference, November, 1882, and appointed to Martinsville, Henry County, Virginia. Here he remained three years. Success crowned his labors. The Church was strengthened and built up in all departments. A church and parsonage were built and many souls were born into the Kingdom of God.

The history of his success on his first charge marked his whole ministry. He served the following charges thereafter: Mathews, Bedford Springs, Madison and Gordonsville, four years each. Ettrick, one year; Madison the second time three years; Emporia, one year; Lunenburg and Batesville, four years each; East Nottoway, three years, and Lunenburg the second time, four years. A most remarkable record.

He was married December, 1884, to Miss Lillian Shepherd of Palmyra, Fluvanna County, Virginia, whose companionship strengthened and helped him all his days. She survives him with two daughters to mourn his departure.

Brother Comer was an excellent pastor and preacher. The character of his preaching and its effect upon the hearers, has been most aptly described by his Presiding Elder, Rev. C. E. Blankenship.

"His preaching was not with the wisdom and eloquence of man's wisdom, but was saturated with that wisdom that cometh from above. Simply and quietly, without ostentation or display, he told the simple story of Jesus and His love. If there were some among his hearers who never thought of him as a great preacher, there were few if any, who did not go away thinking of the greatness of his Savior."

He suddenly fell asleep in the midst of his pastoral duties. "He died at his post." "He is not for God hath taken him."

The funeral services were conducted at the home of his brother, Mr. J. W. Comer, Roanoke, Virginia, by Rev. C. E. Blankenship, Presiding Elder of the Farmville District, assisted by Rev. C. O. Tuttle of Blackstone, and Rev. Harry Wheeler of the West End Methodist Church, Roanoke. The body was laid to rest in the Roanoke Cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

"Servant of God, well done."

Rev. Joseph Rodgers Sturgis

By T. McN. SIMPSON

Rev. Joseph Rodgers Sturgis was a valued contribution of Maryland Methodism to our Virginia Conference Ministry. He was born in Baltimore, May 19th, 1844, and lacked just one month of filling up the measure of 77 years, when he "fell on sleep and was laid unto his fathers."

His parents were William Parker and Catherine Cutler Sturgis, and they brought him up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord", teaching him the Holy Scriptures which made him wise unto Salvation.

In 1869, in Somerset County, Maryland, he formally united with the church of his love, and for fifty-two years he walked in the way of her appointments, worshipping at her altars, supporting her institutions and ministering in her pulpits.

In 1870 he was given license to exhort, and in 1871, October 26th at Tyler-ton, Somerset County, Maryland, he was happily married to Miss Alice E. Bradshaw, who proved a help-mate indeed, sharing his toils and triumphs, and making his home a sweet haven of rest. She bore faithfully with him "the burden and heat" of his day, and stood tearfully by him when he laid his body and his charge down.

In 1874 he moved to Virginia and came under the ministry and into the fellowship of Rev. D. G. C. Butts, whom he cherished through life, and who cherished him with brotherly interest, counseled him with warm personal appreciation and led his hesitating feet along the way of his divine call.

In 1875 he was given authority to preach, and in 1878 was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference and continued in its membership and service till transferred by the great Head of the church to a larger brotherhood and a wider field.

His first charge was Ettrick, Virginia, which he served three years and was sent to Cambridge, Maryland. As the writer followed him at Ettrick he heard much of his popularity and efficiency and was sympathetically advised that he would find it mighty hard to take the place of Brother Sturgis.

From Cambridge, Maryland he was sent to Ashland, Virginia, thence to Pungoteague, thence to Trinity, Richmond, where his health broke down and he was forced to retire. At the end of three years, he had renewed his strength and returned to his "loved employ". He served, in the order named, Wachapreague, Guilford, Nottoway, West Brunswick, Wakefield, North Pittsylvania, Bedford Springs, Brookneal, West Charlotte and Crittenden, where, at the end of his first year, he found his strength unequal to his task, and he asked for a place in the superannuate relation. He moved to Blackstone, where his married daughter, Mrs. T. Freeman Epes was living, made a quiet home for himself and family and took active interest in the affairs of the church, the Institute and the community, preaching at times. But the pull of the "regular work" was constantly upon him and the call of white harvest fields for more laborers made him restless and he offered again for an appointment. He was sent to Saxe, Charlotte County, but it proved too heavy for him and at the end of one year he regretfully retired for the third time.

In December, 1920, he moved to Brookneal to make his home with a married daughter there, Mrs. J. R. Williams, and was a member of her family circle till called to join the family circle of our Father in heaven. He made a warm place for himself in the hearts of the Brookneal people and they mourned his going as that of a father in Israel. He had preached in their pulpits, had taught in the Sunday School, and conducted prayer-meetings, had visited sick ones, and they sorrowed that they should see his face and hear his voice no more.

Brother Sturgis had served his generation with quiet zeal and had made as full proof of his ministry as his imperfect health and his limited equipment would allow. He was not lacking in attractive gifts, nature had been generous toward him, but his early advantages were few, and he made his way and won his success by patient perseverance in well-doing. He sought neither place nor power, but studied to show himself approved unto God and unto men, and became a workman that needed not to be ashamed.

As a man, he was rather low of stature but high of aim and effort. His affections were set on things above, and his feet pressed toward the mark for the prize of his high calling. A big brotherly heart beat beneath his gentle breast, and a kindly spirit looked at you through his clear black eyes and spoke to you through his soft smooth voice. A gracious manner gave him easy approach to men, women and children, and enabled him to make enduring friendships out of passing fellowships. His taste and talent for poetry and music were marked characteristics, and gave a pleasing touch to his home hospitalities, his literary compositions and his pulpit ministrations. His eye for the beautiful found charm in Nature's changing scenes, and the morning clouds, the evening sunsets, the towering mountains and the spreading landscapes formed picture galleries that drew and delighted him. "The heavens declared the glory of God and the firmament showed his handiwork."

As a preacher, he was earnest and evangelical, sounding forth the gospel of Christ as the power of God unto Salvation. He made no attempts at oratory and sought no show of gifts, but preached Christ and him crucified, the world's Redeemer, the sinner's Savior, the believer's Peace and Joy and Hope. He gave diligence to reading and prayer, and brought out of his treasury things new and old, that he might have a word in season for those who came to hear him.

As a pastor, he was tenderly sympathetic, weeping with those that wept, and rejoicing with those that rejoiced. He gave heed to the flock of which he was made overseer, seeking to lead them into green pastures and beside still waters, that the Good Shepherd might not lose any that had been committed to his care.

As a husband and father, he was affectionate and thoughtful, gentle and easy to be entreated, and his household rises up and calls him blessed.

His career is now ended, his course finished, he rests from his labors. His going was marked by a gracious token that made glad the hearts of his loved ones, for at his evening time there was a sweet, "kindly light."

For four days he had been suffering intensely and increasingly, but without loss of consciousness, except when under the influence of an opiate. Between his paroxysms he would commune with God in prayer, and converse with his family respecting the departure which he felt was at hand. Repeatedly he assured them "All is well" and looked beyond the valley of shadows to "the land of rest, the Saint's delight, the heaven prepared for me".

On Tuesday evening, April 19th, just as the sun was going down, he seemed to cross over into the great Beyond. All his children were about him except his youngest son who was on a trip in the far west; but his oldest son had arrived late and found his father apparently gone beyond his reach. He made several efforts to arouse him that he might gain his recognition and receive his blessing, but no response came and his heart had lost hope. Suddenly a change came, the eyes that had been long closed unexpectedly opened. They looked and smiled a recognition and greeting, then flashed with "a light not seen on land or sea", then quietly beamed awhile upon those about his bed, then closed in that "blessed sleep from which none ever wakes to weep." It was a thrilling and an inspiring moment for those who had prayed for some such final favor, and now saw the worn old veteran triumph over death and darkness.

On Thursday afternoon, after a simple service at the Presbyterian Church near by, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. B. Lavinder, his pastor, Rev. J. L. Kibler, his successor at Saxe, Rev. A. S. J. Rice, his neighbor and Rev. Dr. Fisher, his friend and pastor of the Baptist Church, and attended by a large gathering of sympathetic and appreciative people, surrounding his surviving loved-ones, his wife and two daughters named above, his two sons, William J. and Thomas Steele Sturgis of New York and his youngest child, Miss Edith, we laid his body to rest in the little cemetery of the town, covered his bed with beautiful and fragrant flowers, and bade him—

"There sweet be thy rest, till He bid thee arise
To hail Him in triumph, descending the skies."

Rev. John O. Moss

By J. C. REED

As we meet in our Annual Session today, we miss from our ranks the portly form and kindly face of Rev. John O. Moss who for forty-one years served in the active Ministry of the Virginia Conference, and after one year and seven months of surperanuaton ceased his earthly labors, and entered upon his glorious reward.

He was born in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, Oct. 9th, 1855. His parents were Oswald M. and Margaret J. Moss. He joined the church at the age of twelve, but not until he reached the age of sixteen, did he become satisfied as to his acceptance with God. Alone, in the silent hours of the night, while praying, there came to his heart "the peace of God which passeth all understanding". In the consciousness of God's abiding presence he walked and worked to the end of his days.

His educational advantages were those of the common School of his neighborhood and two sessions at Randolph-Macon College.

In November 1877, he was admitted on trial in the Virginia Conference which was held at Lynchburg, and was appointed to the Gates Circuit, N. C. as Junior preacher under Rev. Thos. H. Campbell.

He thereafter served the following charges in the order named:

Woodville, Campbell, Harrellsville, N. C., Camden, N. C., Newsoms, Northampton, N. C., Dinwiddie, Cumberland, Lunenburg, Dinwiddie, the second time, Mathews, Nottoway, Prospect, Franktown and Waverly.

Success followed his labors in all of these charges. Many souls were brought into the Kingdom of God under his faithful and loving ministry. Believers were established in the faith of the Gospel.

He possessed fine social quality. His people gladly welcomed him to their homes. The children loved him, and delighted to listen to the gracious words that fell from his lips. He was the friend of the poor and needy, and a comforter of the distressed. He spent his life in doing good.

He was a good preacher. He believed in the Gospel which he preached. It had saved him and he knew it could save others. He prepared carefully for the pulpit. Trusting in the Holy Spirit, whose aid he had sought in prayer, the gospel from his lips was the power of God to the edification and salvation of those who heard. He had many seals to his ministry.

December 22nd, 1880, he was most happily married to Miss Sue Caroline Riddick of Hertford County, N. C., who became a large factor in his success in the ministry. She not only made him one of the happiest of homes, but entered heartily into all of the work of the Church.

God blessed their union with thirteen children. Seven of these died in infancy. Six children survive, four daughters and two sons, with their mother to mourn their irreparable loss.

Our brother's passion for Missions appeared prominently throughout his whole life. The Master's "Go Ye" seemed ever to be ringing in his ear.

Of the first money he ever earned, two dollars, he gave one dollar to Missions and he wished afterwards that he had given both.

When one of his charges moved to increase his salary, he preferred to have a man in the Foreign Field, and as a consequence, a young man converted under his ministry, is supported by that charge in Korea.

The Centenary movement gladdened his heart, and he gave most liberally to this great movement. His last days were brightened by this great awakening for which he had been praying, giving and laboring throughout his ministry.

His health having failed after forty-one years in the active ministry, at the Conference of 1920, he asked to be given the relation of a Superannuate. In this relation he was continued in 1921, and May 18, 1921, at Ford, Va., he peacefully passed to his heavenly home.

His remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery at Corinth Church, Ford, Va. The funeral services were conducted in Corinth Church by Rev. W. G. Boggs, pastor of West Dinwiddie Circuit, assisted by Rev. J. C. Reed, R. M. Maxey and E. W. Elliott. The Choir of Crenshaw's Church, Blackstone, rendered sweet and suitable Music, and the grave was covered with beautiful flowers by those who loved him.

He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

Rev. James E. McSparran

By J. C. REED

Rev. James Erasmus McSparran was born near Earlysville, Albemarle County, Va., July 24, 1833, and died at the home of his son, Dr. E. C. McSparran, Richmond, Va., June 23, 1921.

He was the son of Erasmus Stephen and Louise Harris McSparran. His father was a native of Philadelphia, Pa., but came to Charlottesville, Va., as supervising architect in the construction of the University of Virginia and thereafter remained in Virginia.

He was converted in 1853, under the ministry of Rev. Ballard E. Gibson at Chesnut Grove Church, Albemarle County, Va.

Soon after his conversion he felt the divine call to the ministry, but his lack of mental training and great diffidence caused him to doubt the genuineness of his call. A good providence led him to engage as a Colporter for the American Tract Society. This service deepened his conviction as to his sacred calling. He was given license to exhort and preach, and also recommendation to the Conference without any solicitation on his part. In this he saw the hand of the Lord.

In 1857, he was received on trial in the Virginia Conference and appointed to serve with Rev. J. D. Lumsden, on the Princess Anne Circuit. Information as to the charges he served from 1858 to 1868 could not be obtained.

In 1868, he was appointed to Buckingham Circuit and thereafter received the following appointments in the order named:

Northumberland, N. C., Hicksford, West Dinwiddie, Appomattox, Pittsylvania, Conquest and Guildford, Bertie, N. C., Meherrin, York, Chase City Circuit, Princess Anne, Brunswick, East Dinwiddie, North Pittsylvania, Hyco, West Goochland, West New Kent and Caroline.

At the Conference held in Newport News, November 1901, he asked for and was granted the superannuate relation, in which relation he continued until his death.

He was married July 17, 1866, to Miss Sallie Emma Clayton of Otter Hill, Bedford County, Va. This good woman died October 24, 1916, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Hill, and was buried in Riverview Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

The writer came in close touch with Brother McSparran, when Presiding Elder of the Norfolk District. He was then in charge of the Princess Anne Circuit.

He was most hospitable and kind, and many pleasant hours were spent at the parsonage at Nimmo's Church. His labors were blessed with many conversions during his two years pastorate on the Princess Anne Circuit.

The sketches of the Virginia Conference by Dr. J. J. Lafferty, his classmate in the Conference, and written during the last year of Brother McSparran's active ministry, gives the following estimate of the man and his work.

"Mr. McSparran has served the Church in the last forty-three years with faithfulness and crowning success, bringing in a great company of converts and building the walls of Zion. God has given testimony to his labors. His sermons are all of well seasoned material, firmly joined and built up into a strong edifice and not without grace. The temporal interest is well kept in hand and cared for, churches prosper in his charge."

After his retirement from the active ministry he was tenderly cared for by his sons. He lived a very quiet and retired life and was unknown by the larger part of the present members of the Virginia Conference. He waited patiently for his release, and often said, "he did not understand why God did not let him go to his home above."

Eighty-eight years of age lacking one month, on June 23, 1921, he quietly and peacefully passed to his eternal reward, at the home of his son, Dr. E. C. McSparran, Richmond, Va.

He leaves to mourn his loss four children, Dr. E. C. McSparran, Mrs. Daisy Hill, Dr. J. L. McSparran, a medical missionary to Japan and Rev. F. B. McSparran, a member of this Conference and Presiding Elder of the Eastern Shore District.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. M. S. Colonna, Presiding Elder of the Richmond District, assisted by Reverends J. L. Bray, W. S. Deyerle, S. L. Dumville and T. E. Johnson from the home of Dr. E. C. McSparran, 408 North Allen Ave., Richmond, Va., and the body was laid to rest in Riverview Cemetery by the side of the wife and mother who had preceded him to the Heavenly Home.

"I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest till he bid me arise,
To hail him in triumph descending the skies."

Rev. John Hannon, D. D.

BY W. W. ROYALL

John Hannon was born at the family residence in Montgomery, Alabama, November 8, 1845, and died at his own residence, the gift of loving friends, in Lynchburg, Virginia on September 2, 1921.

Between these dates lies the record of a life remarkable in so many ways that it may fairly be called unique. For whether considered from the standpoint of native gifts, of widespread service to the cause of Christ, or of mellowed sweetness and holiness of life, he was a man out of the ordinary.

Though born in Alabama, he became by long residence and loving assimilation thoroughly a Virginian, but his services to the Church were so loyal, far spread, and brilliant, that he became a member of the whole connection from Baltimore to San Francisco, and the record of his life is a precious legacy to us all. Married when past his younger days, he was provided by a gracious providence with a helpmate so true to all wifely obligations, so fully in love with her husband's sacred calling, so well fitted, intellectually and spiritually for high service, that one need not forget the brilliant talents of the husband to see the power of the wifely hand. It was an ideal union.

John Hannon was well-born. His family stood among the best in the City. His father was my Sunday School teacher, and the class included young men from the best homes of Montgomery. By birth and breeding John Hannon was a "gentleman of the old school". It remained for divine grace to give the highest luster to that polish. On the maternal side the family line runs back to Virginia, and to the home of the well and honorably known Stubbs family, in whose home a princely hospitality was dispensed. One of the beautiful things in this beautiful life was his tenderness for that Mother. In every parsonage where he lived she was an annual visitor, and queen of the home. One passage of a letter written to the Richmond Christian Advocate abides in my memory: "Here sits the precious mother, queen of the home, drinking huge draughts of happiness out of a long-necked bottle, labelled "John".

In writing of such a man, one has need of self restraint. One is apt to be charged with enthusiasm, yet even the barest recital of the facts is more or less electrical. The gallant lad who rode after Wheeler the hero of two wars, the brilliant student, the charming young preacher, the man who from coast to coast filled difficult pulpits, the hero who risked his life in the fever zone, the lecturer who delighted hundreds, the visitor who charmed every fireside, whose coming was a ray of sunshine; all these and more, was he. But it is as Hannon, the man of God, who gave his prayers and his gold to the poor and needy, who led the lost sinner to the pardoning Saviour, who himself lived in sweet and daily communion with his Lord, whose life was hid with Christ in God, whose memory we shall not cease to cherish.

I first heard of him in 1868, when a sister, who had been visiting the beloved Beckham in King and Queen, brought home the report of the young preacher whose sermons were already being compared to those of that prince of the pulpit, William E. Munsey, at that time thrilling great and cultured audiences at Mount Vernon, Washington. I met him face to face in front of the old Court Street Church, Montgomery, in June 1870 when he was at home on vacation. Hardly more than five years out of the saddle in which he had followed the gallant Wheeler, he was to me a hero to be admired. But so far from being impressed with his own importance was he, so simple and unaffected, that I felt not the greatness of his station nor the brilliancy of his talents, but the gentle spell of his loving heart. He was then, fifty years ago, what he afterwards became to the people from Baltimore to New Orleans and the Golden Gate, "Hannon the Beloved."

One day as he lay upon his couch he said to Me, with the simplicity of a child, "Royall, I believe I've got the Second Blessing". That was enough for him to say.

Associated with him in a lecture of four days, listening with delight to the same lecture, I felt at the end of the tour, as though I had been on the Mount of Blessing. And when on Sunday night he closed the tour with a melting sermon, it was nothing incongruous to see people flock to the altar. Who but Hannon could have done that.

A list of the churches he served gives a good indication of the wideness of his service to the Church. Mount Vernon, (Washington, D. C.,) Culpeper Station, Trinity, (Baltimore,) St. Charles Avenue and Carondelet Avenue, (New Orleans, back to Virginia to cleanse his system of the poison of yellow fever, and stationed at Park Place (Richmond,) then to Memorial, (Lynchburg), the very name to become as the fragrance of the ointment in the House at Bethany, the Church where he engraved his name deep in the hearts of hundreds, then, sweeping across the continent to the Golden Coast, in Centenary, San Francisco, in San Jose, to Ukiah, to Alameda, then with a new inspiration and blessing, with his loved and loving companion by his side, to the great congregation at Union Station, to Trinity to Cabell Street Memorial, (Danville) to South Boston, to Wright Memorial (Portsmouth,) and then to West-End, (Lynchburg,) whence he retired to the Roll of Honor, the veterans' rest. It was meet that he should spend the evening of life among the scenes of his youthful victories for his Captain.

To trace his life and work through all these years and places, though interesting as a history, would add but little to our knowledge of him and his work for Christ. But in the eighties, when pastor of Memorial, God gave him the power of the Spirit in an unusual degree. It was here that he "thought he had the Second Blessing" and none can doubt that here he found peculiar sweetness and fellowship with Christ and the baptism of love. For nearly a month he stood in the pulpit and preached with great power, while from White Rock to Rivermont the eager throngs came nightly to drink the precious waters. The harvest of that sowing is not yet all in. The springs of blessing that flow from that noble Church to suffering bodies in Korea may have their origin in that meeting of forty years ago.

Early in his ministry he prepared a series of humorous lectures which he delivered with great favour in scores of places. Of these the most popular and admired were "Dynamite" and "The Tub Philosophy of Diogenes". With these he delighted thousands and made many a dollar for struggling churches.

For the Church press he wrote scores of letters so full of his own sweet Spirit, so racy of the itinerant life as to delight thousands. His literary style was the despair of all who attempted to criticise it. He thought in metaphors. To drag him down to plain language were like hitching "Pegasus to a plough". But there was never an acid nor a bitter word in it. Love touched and toned it all.

His marriage to Miss Lucy Haile, a student at Stanford University, was most happy and his home life was beautiful. I shall ever be grateful that my eldest boy had with me the privilege of spending an evening in that atmosphere, while mother and children listened with delight to stories of the old and hallowed days from Montgomery to Ashland. No single text of the Holy Book seemed to fit him like the words of the Master to Nathaniel as he came from the trysting-place of prayer, "Behold an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile."

A feature of his life, not generally familiar, was his immense power of self control. He "kept under" his body. In 1887 he was a sufferer from dyspepsia. Many supposed him almost at the end of his active ministry. But by inflexible self-denial and training as he expressed it "like an athlete" he so far conquered his enemy that he added twenty years to his effective life. Of one who undertook to keep pace with his swift walk, he laughingly said, "I've got his tongue hanging out".

Few, if any of us, keep as close to the injunction of the Apostle Paul, "Pray without ceasing". He lived in an atmosphere of prayer. One touching habit was all his own, that of praying in the family "for all dumb creatures". Talking to a chance comer, just before parting he would lift his hat and say reverently, "Let us talk to God about it".

What were his last words? He left none. He left seventy-six years of holy living to give the answer. One message he sent not long ere he passed, "Tell the brethren I love them, every single one".

The widowed mother, the fatherless son and daughter are richer than they can ever guess.

He was no singer, but there is one song he quoted for me in 1887 that I shall never forget:

"My life flows on in endless song
I hear the sweet though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation
Above the tumult and the strife
I hear its music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul,
How can I keep from singing?"
Amen.

APPENDIX III—REPORTS.

Board of Missions

Report No. 1.

The past year has been one of the most notable years in the history of the missionary enterprise of our Church. The great Centenary Movement has made a reality of the great dream of our Church for the enlargement of the missionary program. Perhaps never in the history of Christendom did a Church advance so quickly and so magnificently in a world-wide program. In the midst of world tumult and conditions universally unsettled, our Church has undertaken with faith in God and with loyalty to Christ to fulfill the responsibility which these conditions have brought upon her. The enlargement of the building program, church, school and hospital, in our foreign fields has been one to challenge the admiration of every member of our great denomination. The program of the Home Department of the General Board of Missions, both for city and rural work, has kept pace with the development on the foreign fields. A well planned policy for the city, a survey of the rural territory, the summer schools for enlarging our knowledge of the need of rural work, all bear testimony to the aggressiveness and well wrought out plans of the Home Department. The church-wide revival which last year brought the largest increase to the membership of our Church in all her history, promises to be duplicated by the reports for the current year. The call for well equipped workers both for the foreign fields and the home field and the response to that call has been most gratifying and a most encouraging item in our missionary advance.

The Christian Education Movement comes at a time which seems in every way providential, for hand in hand these two great enterprises must move for bringing to pass the Kingdom of God among men.

The dominant note that ought to be in the heart of every Southern Methodist is one of thanksgiving to God that He has so wonderfully blessed and guided in these great enterprises.

This greatly enlarged missionary program of our Church lays upon us a profound responsibility. We are brought face to face with the fact that in order to carry on, the millions subscribed in the Centenary campaign must be collected. This entire program is magnificent, and as heart-stirring as it is, will break down unless the Centenary pledges are collected. The integrity and honesty of our whole Church is involved in the payment of these pledges. The same unity and enthusiasm which marked the period of the subscriptions to the Centenary must also characterize us in the collection of the pledges. We are dependent at last upon the local church, the local forces of that church, for the collection of the subscriptions. We feel confident that we shall not appeal in vain to the men and women of our Church to gladly make good the subscriptions which have been made. The plan for the collection of these subscriptions is well known to every local church. We are therefore urging, as the Board of Missions of the Virginia Conference, that all forces of our Conference shall co-operate in making good.

It is a matter of congratulation to this great Conference that both in the Centenary and in the Christian Education Movement she has led all of the Conferences in the connection. We believe that we have a peculiar responsibility as the pre-eminent missionary conference of the Church to continue to lead as we go on in the task of the collections. Surely no greater appeal could be made to the membership throughout the bounds of the Virginia Conference than the manifest blessing of God upon these great missionary enterprises. We, therefore, count confidently upon their co-operation, the co-operation of all the factors of this Conference, which shall make the completion of the Centenary more glorious than the beginning.

The Board of missions requests the Presiding Bishop to appoint J. Franklin Carey, Conference Missionary Secretary; J. W. Dixon, Conference Evangelist; J. T. Mastin, Superintendent, Methodist Institute, Richmond, Va.; and A. Victor Lightbourne, Conference Evangelist, without salary. We report to the Conference that Rev. J. M. Oakey has been employed as Conference Evangelist for the coming year.

On recommendation of the Presiding Elder, the Rural Demonstration on the Albemarle Circuit, has been discontinued and this action of the Board in no way reflects upon the faithfulness and efficiency of the man who was stationed on that charge during the past year.

Dr. J. L. Jarman has been nominated to fill a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of Ferrum Training School. The vacancy was caused by the death of Mr. C. E. Wilson.

During the past year the Board of Missions has kept in use two tents. This enterprise was so successful that a Committee consisting of C. H. Kidd and F. L. Wells was appointed to purchase another tent. The tents will be in charge of Rev. J. F. Carey, the Conference Missionary Secretary. The Committee on Evangelism has been continued with the request that the plan of last year be adopted as the policy of the Committee for the coming year and that evangelistic institutes be held in several centers during the early spring.

A committee of three has been appointed to outline a plan of a summer school similar to the one that was held at Lynchburg last June.

The Rural Demonstration stations ought to be continued on the Mathews and the North Patrick Circuits. A Committee has been appointed to investigate the possibilities of several circuits with reference to special rural organizations.

The midyear meeting of the Board will be held in Richmond, Va., on Thursday, January 12th, beginning at 10 o'clock.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

As might be expected, the Presiding Elders have been active and zealous throughout the year in promoting the cause of Evangelism in their respective Districts. They have graciously co-operated with the Conference Director in furnishing statistics of such work as has been done, which figures are hereby submitted to your honorable Board as the Annual Report of this Office:

Board of Lay Activity

For six years or more the organization of the Board of Lay Activities has been devoted to the accomplishment of four simple outstanding items of efficiency, viz:

- 1st: A more respectable and adequate basis of support for the ministry.
- 2nd: A broader conception and understanding of the Missionary obligation of the Church.
- 3rd: Payments of all assessments in full, with no compromise of the Lord's debts.
- 4th: Making pastorates self-supporting by elimination of Mission Board support.

With the year that has just closed, these ideals have continued to be stressed, and some effective assistance has been rendered, although the majority of our Laymen have been required and expected (at the exclusion of all else) to consecrate themselves unreservedly to the great cause of the Christian Education Fund, which has occupied the thought of the Church, as provided during the past year.

The results of this labor will be handled in a separate report, and forms no part of this paper, other than to say, as individual members of this organization, we are grateful for the privilege of having been able to participate in it, and to feel now that the elements of the heroic with which it was fraught have formed a bright chapter in the realm of sacrifice which is so essential to the continued development of stewardship. Surely it is true, men live and die oftentimes without a knowledge of their own power, for the lack of a crisis to develop it.

Your Board wishes to reaffirm its abiding faith in the Providential leading of our Heavenly Father. We are positive that God still rules and guides, through war, reconstruction and depression, as well as in placing upon us the obligation for the payment of Centenary and Educational Fledges, even at a time like the present when it is difficult to see how it can be done.

The War came, and left in its wake the one golden opportunity of a lifetime, that the Church might come into its own by supplying that which the world sorely needed; but alas, the Church was not ready and but poorly prepared for such sudden responsibility.

Two things were lacking. First, a world vision of its own power for accomplishment; and second, the means to do that which the world expected of her.

It is not too much to say that these two subjects were among those most stressed at the recent session of the Ecumenical Conference.

These facts all have a direct bearing on our own situation here in our own Conference, for your Board is convinced that with the present reconstruction blight cast upon our people, robbing many of the ambition to do and dare as formerly, we are going to find it the most difficult task possible to secure funds equivalent to pledges made for both Centenary and Educational subscriptions.

There is, in our judgment, but one way to do it, and that is through a universal adoption of tithing on the part of not less than 75 per cent. of our membership. We must make this question of "Bringing our tithes into the store-house" a holy and an essential one, and who knows but that God has led us on step by step, through war and reconstruction and lost opportunity, to bring home to us the lesson which formerly we have ignored with impunity, viz: to cease robbing God, but rather to render unto Him that which is already His own, not only that our multitude of pledges already made may be paid, but that once the system is made universal, there will always be "substance enough in our Father's house" to enable the Church to command means enough to enter open doors of opportunity in future when Providentially opened to her.

Brethren, it's a reflection beyond compare that the Church should forever be lagging, and that our Godly ministry should still be required to even agonize over the comparatively small amounts that are needed to be paid from year to year. If the world is to be won for Christ, the Church must be adequately supported, and, at the same time, help to save men from the present destructive influence of the love of money, which is insiduously damning many in this materialistic age.

Under the influence and conviction of these views, your Board recommends the following for adoption by the Conference.

- 1st:—That, as soon as may be practicable after the adjournment of Conference, a meeting be arranged by the Conference Lay Leader, of each District Leader and as many Presiding Elders and Secretaries as possible, for the purpose of adopting a definite plan for each District to secure—first, every steward in the connection as a member of the Tithing League, and, in turn, their assistance in carrying the system to the membership of their Churches.
- 2nd:—That each District Leader, in co-operation with the Presiding Elder, shall call a meeting of all Church Leaders and such Pastors as may be able to attend, to adopt definite plans for covering every Church in every District for membership in said League.
- 3rd:—That this Board hereby pledges its untiring efforts to the collection of Centenary and Educational Pledges, and to every phase of efficiency in the conduct of the local Church.
- 4th:—That T. S. Southgate is hereby nominated for election as Lay Leader of the Conference for the coming year with E. Frank Story as associate.

Respectfully Submitted,
T. S. SOUTHGATE,
Chairman.

Report of the Board of Church Extension.

27 applications for donations and loans to your Board, representing askings amounting in the aggregate to $28,685.00 for donations, and $15,500 for loans, reveal to us the difficulties in part under which the church within our boundaries have labored this year in erecting houses of worship and homes for our pastors. Throughout our boundaries the era of construction seems to be unabated, despite difficulties that would thwart less heroic spirits, yet we feel forced to report to this conference that many of these emergency cases are the result of a failure to consider the requirements of the discipline with reference to the erection of churches and parsonages. In many instances the three-fourths amount necessary to build have not been secured even by good subscriptions. Your Board has given careful consideration to every application before us. Every case was one of need. If the funds had been at our disposal we would have granted every donation and every loan. It is very evident to your Board, that if we are to do the work effectively in the future and give worth while aid and sufficient encouragement to the erection of churches and parsonages within our bounds, we must have a larger appropriation, thereby placing a larger sum at our disposal. Pitiably small appears the sum at our disposal for this year. $13,591.08 from all sources, leaving in our hands for distribution $6,795.54. Less than one-fourth the amount necessary to meet our needs. We present the following financial table:

We present the following resolutions:

First. That we call attention to the Conference Commission of Finance to the ever increasing demand upon this Board for aid, and request, if possible, that they increase the percentage of assessment from 19 percent. to 25 per cent.

Second. That we call to the attention of our people the attractiveness of investments in the Annuity Bonds, furnished by the Loan Fund Department of our church extension work, whereby an interest of from 5 per cent. to 9 per cent. is drawn annually and at the same time giving invaluable aid to the progress of the Kingdom of our God.

Third. That we patronize the Architectural Department of the Board of Church Extension, securing plans and blue prints from them whenever possible.

Fourth. That all applications for aid or loan to this Board must be in the hands of the secretary at least ten days before the next session of our Annual Conference.

Board of Education

Report No. 1

We, the Board of Education of Virginia Annual Conference, have had under consideration reports concerning the Christian Education Movement from the General Board of Education and from the Conference Educational Secretary, and respectfully offer the following recommendations:

First. We are gratified at the splendid progress that has been made towards the attainment of the five objectives of the Christian Education Movement. When all of the conditions are taken into account, we believe that what has been accomplished is little short of marvelous. It is a great tribute to the faithful service and loyalty of the preachers and people participating.

Second. We desire to emphasize that the campaign is not closed and must not be until the entire quota for this Conference is raised. If our institutions needed $33,000,000 a year ago, the Movement has multiplied that need by awakening in our people a desire for Christian education. The schools of the Church last year turned away 5,000 for lack of facilities; they probably have lost much more heavily this year for the same reason. We are, therefore, in the midst of an incompleting task. Every charge in Methodism has been assigned a definite part in a great cooperative effort of the Church to solve its educational problem, and it is hereby declared to be the judgment of this Conference that whenever it is practicable to do so an earnest effort should be made to raise what is still lacking of the quotas allotted to the several districts, and pastoral charges of the Conference.

Third. That the Presiding Elders in the first round of Quarterly Conferences in answer to the question "What is being done for Christian Education?" secure accurate reports from pastors and Church Collectors or Directors concerning the quota and the amounts already subscribed, and concerning the general economic condition in each charge. We further recommend that wherever practicable arrangements be made to finish the Every-Member Canvass in churches which have not raised their quotas. The full amount of each quota should be subscribed if possible by the General Conference of 1922.

Fourth. That we urge our people to pay promptly their educational subscriptions when they fall due, that pastors and presiding elders do what they can to secure prompt payment, and that as most subscriptions fall due November 1st, we fix the week beginning November 27th and ends December 4th. as Pay-Up-Week. The schools and colleges of our Conference are sorely in need of money, and as a means of relief the cooperation of pastor, presiding elder, and people is urged in an effort to secure the prompt payment of pledges.

Fifth. That if Church Collectors in any charge or charges have not been appointed, they should be elected at the first Quarterly Conference of the ensuing year.

Sixth. That where the original pledge cards have not been sent to the Educational Secretary the pastor arrange to have them sent to him at an early date.

Seventh. That Rev. J. K. Jolliff be appointed as Conference Educational Secretary.

S. C. HATCHER,
Secretary.

Report No. 2

The survey made of the educational institutions of the South develops the fact that the Virginia Conference has a system of education of which it has a right to be proud. The Randolph-Macon schools, Blackstone and Ferrum meet the needs of the Church, and our people can look on these schools with pride.

We call on our people everywhere to pray for our schools and colleges and to co-operate in the Christian Education Movement in order that it may be a complete success, both in the subscription of the quota and the collection of the pledges made.

(1) The nomination of E. S. Carlton as trustee of Randolph-Macon College, is approved.

(2) The Treasurer of the Annual Conference is hereby instructed to pay out of the Annual Conference to the Treasurer of the Virginia Conference Board of Education $150.00 for the expenses of the Board of Education for the coming year.

(3) We request the presiding Bishop to appoint S. C. Hatcher as Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer of Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia; E. H. Rowe, as President of the Southern Seminary, Buena Vista, Virginia; W. A. Christian, as President of Blackstone College for Girls, Blackstone, Virginia; W. J. Young and W. A. Smart, as Professors in the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Georgia; Jas. Cannon, III, as Professor in Trinity College, Durham, N. C.; B. M. Beckham as Principal of Ferrum Training School, Ferrum, Virginia; J. K. Jolliff, as Conference Secretary of Education. E. R. Crawley, as student in Gordon School of Missions and Theology, Boston, Mass.; W. E. Thomas as Principal of Cardwell High School and student in Emory University, Emory, Ga.

Educational Statistics

We submit the following statistics for the year ending June 1921: Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia. Chief officer, R. E. Blackwell, president; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $317,000; endowment, $460,000; officers and teachers 24; students 188.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va. Chief officer, D. R. Anderson, president; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $493,000; endowment, $399,000; officers and teachers 65; students 618.

Blackstone College for Girls, Blackstone, Va. Chief officer, W. A. Christian, president; value of grounds, buildings and appliances $350,000; officers and teachers 32; students 467.

Randolph-Macon Academy, Bedford, Va. Chief officer, E. Sumter Smith, principal, value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $132,000; officers and teachers, 13; students 256.

Randolph-Macon Institute, Danville, Va. Chief officer, Charles G. Evans, principal; value of grounds, building and appliances $131,000, officers and teachers 26; students 465.

Ferrum Training School, Ferrum, Va. Chief officer, B. M. Beckham, principal; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $200,000; endowment $3,000.00; officers and teachers, 25; students 650.

Total value of grounds, building and appliances, $1,623,000.00; endowment, $862,000; officers and teachers, 185; students 2,644.

Your Board of Education, in accordance with the plans adopted for Ministerial Supply and Training, has received $1,916.22, which will be disbursed to worthy applicants by a committee from the Board of Education known as the Committee on Ministerial Supply and Training, consisting of W. A. Christian, S. T. Senter and S. C. Hatcher.

Secretary.

Report No. 3

The Board of Education would add to the list of appointments requested to be made by the Bishop, the name of H. W. Neville, the Board asks that he be appointed the Principal of White Plains High School, North Carolina.

Report of the President of the Board of Education

Brethren of the Conference:—

The reports that have been presented to you from the Board of Education have brought to your attention the out-standing significance of the Educational Movement and what must be done to conserve the results of it.

May I restate some of these results as I see them.

It gave us the first great opportunity to bring before the Church as a whole the subject of Christian Education. Up to this time those in charge of this work had to take what time they could be given in the hurry of Annual Conferences and District Conferences; but during the last year, they were given access to every congregation and thus the whole Church at one and the same time was thinking on the subject of the worth of Christian education to our Church and to the world. It was our great and supreme opportunity. That we made the most of it, would be saying too much; but I sincerely believe that the fruit of that sowing will be seen in generations to come, and not merely in the immediate results as reflected in the increased attendance on our schools and the increased financial support given them or even in the increase in the number of ministerial students or those offering for life service.

But some of our people seem to believe that Christian institutions will be made perfect by properly equipping them, and that they should turn out perfect or nearly Christian characters. But money and equipment do not make character or spiritual worth. It simply gives larger opportunities. We should remember that the Master-teacher of us all lost one of his twelve pupils. And the experience of Christian families ought to keep us from making this error of expecting the impossible of our schools.

Increased endowments will enable us to accept more students and do our educational work in a better manner, by allowing us to have smaller classes, thus giving each student more individual attention; and it is this personal contact that is the greatest factor in development of character. Besides, increased endowments will enable us to offer more subjects of study and thus bring more of our young people to our schools instead of their having to go to schools not under our Church. For instance, Randolph-Macon has no chair of education, or business administration or public speaking or political government, which our competitors have.

One thing which I had hoped had been impressed upon us is that there is a unity in our Christian educational work, in the family, in the Sunday School, in the Epworth League and in the Christian school and Christian Education does not begin in our schools, nor end there.

There is a passion for education sweeping over the Country filling all schools in the land to over-flowing. Thus our Students are not of the same character as they have been in the past. They come with all kinds of ideals and some with no very high ideals, coming as they do from unchristian homes. Because of this situation the teachers having to mould this body of undisciplined youth, are feeling as never before the necessity of leavening this great mass of ambitious young people with a spirit that will make of these students worthy citizens of a Christian State. This gives the Church the supreme educational opportunity in all its long history.

May our Church do its part in this great work at this moment in the world's history when it most needs the Christ spirit and leader's filled with that spirit.

R. E. BLACKWELL,
Chairman.

Report of Conference Commission on Education.

The Conference Commission on Education appointed at the last session of our Annual Conference and charged with certain tasks in the great Educational Movement submits the following report.

The Commission met from time to time to transact such business as the exigencies of the Movement demanded. The main items were the election of the Conference Financial Director and the apportionment of the quota assumed by the Conference. Fortunate were we and the Conference in prevailing upon our Conference Lay Leader, Mr. T. S. Southgate, to take the financial directorship. The Conference quota was apportioned to the districts in conference with the presiding elders.

The result of the Drive, tabulated by the Financial Director, is appended.

We feel that it is permissible for us to record our high appreciation of the wonderful service rendered by our Financial Director, T. S. Southgate,—a service that meant the sacrifice of self, time and personal interests. His service merits our appreciation and gratitude. We wish to note our appreciation of, and say our hearty thanks to, the Rev. F. L. Wells, D. D. for the splendid constructive work which he so generously rendered as assistant to Mr. Southgate.

We also desire to write into our report words commendable of Rev. J. K. Jolliff, D. D., Conference Educational Secretary. Dr. Jolliff did a man's part in the great movement. He spent and was spent. He worked until he practically consumed his resources of body and heart. The success attained is due in no small way to his enterprise, his faith, and his labors innumerable.

Finally, we ask that the Presiding Elders and District Directors, faithful men, be assured of the grateful appreciation of this Conference.

Report of Commission to Provide Religious Education for Methodist Students in State Schools

Your Commission is impressed that the obligation that has called it into being is three-fold: namely, To serve the State, its own children, and to conserve its most precious and cumulative assets.

Statesmen and public men generally are increasingly reverent and inquiring in the presence of the spiritual needs of the day. They confess that their only hope for the stability and progress of society is a Christian citizenry. The State is calling to the Church to come to its help.

The Church can answer this call at no other points so effectively and at so small an outlay as at the seats of the State Colleges and Universities, where are assembled the adolescent communities in training for high service, and whence issues the varied leadership of society.

As indicated in our report two years ago it is our conviction that the natural thing, and the immediate thing to do, is to bring the students into sympathetic relation with the local church.

To do this the churches at these points must be encouraged, and when necessary aided, to equip themselves to meet the student situation.

The efforts of your commission have been confined to the strengthening of the hands of our pastors at Charlottesville and Williamsburg. At both places the pastors have given careful and intelligent study to the matter and made suggestions that we have not hesitated to approve.

We have had to turn to the Board of Missions for financial support, and we gratefully acknowledge its prompt action in making the appropriations that we have recommended.

The following report of the Rev. H. B. Myers, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, Charlottesville, will give the Conference some idea of what is being done to reach the Methodist students at the University of Virginia:

"Over 350 Methodist students have registered at the University already this year, and First Church is reaching more of them than for many years. They are well represented in the congregation and in the Sunday School. Plans that we have made for this year, if carried out, will enable us to accomplish more than at present. Mr. B. G. Childs, a graduate student of the University, is giving part time to work with the students; organizing a Wesley Club, enrolling the students in an affiliate membership in First Church, teaching a large student class in the Sunday School, as well as attempting to meet some of their social needs.

The new representative church at Charlottesville will soon become a reality. A lot has been purchased which gives us a commanding site on the most beautiful park of the city, and plans are being made now for the erection of the building. With the equipment for student activities that the new church will furnish, we will be able to reach them more effectively."

On our recommendation the Board of Missions has appropriated $750.00 for the employment of Mr. B. G. Childs, and necessary expenses connected with his work. From the representation of him that we have received from reliable sources we count ourselves fortunate to secure the services of so efficient and promising a man as Mr. Childs.

Rev. Lee G. Crutchfield, our pastor at Williamsburg, advises us that the student body at William and Mary College is about 600. One third of these have indicated a preference for the Methodist Church, and for this group the Pastor and his wife feel a special responsibility. In the Sunday School there are two student Bible Classes: One of fifty young men, the other of 40 young women. The Epworth League is carried on jointly by students and the young people of the local Church, having an attendance of about 100, equally divided between the College and the Town. The Pastor's wife very graciously makes the parsonage a Social Center for Methodist students where monthly socials are given with an attendance of 40 to 100.

The lot adjoining the Church should be purchased at an early date, and a modern Sunday School annex and social hall built thereon.

The Mission Board has renewed its appropriation of $1,200.00 to the support of the Pastor at Williamsburg, and voted an additional amount of $250.00 for social purposes.

To conclude: By an outlay of less than $2,000.00 we are seeking to meet our responsibility at these historic seats of learning where are assembled nearly 600 students from Methodist homes. It will take time and experience to work out an adequate policy and program. A modest beginning has been made, something concrete done, that we hope will prove a basis for larger things in the near future.

Board of Christian Literature

The human system is not more susceptible to disease than is the spiritual. The decay and destruction of the one is not more noticeable to the physician's eye than is a similar soul state to the pastor's insight. To secure the health, happiness and effectiveness of the individual member of the nation is a matter worth while. These, however, are not to be had merely by isolation, but by the use of every intelligent means possible. What one drinks as well as the quantity are largely determinative factors. Polluted springs will inevitably manifest themselves in serious disorders and will likely result in death. We would therefore earnestly urge that all literature sent to our people by Methodist springs, that all utterances from our pulpits, and that all instruction given in our schools of learning shall sparkle with the purest truths. Thus, and chiefly thus, shall we expect the Holy Spirit to bless our beloved Church, and so we shall have millions of men and of money, loyal, loving and live.

The faithful and efficient work of Rev. S. J. Battin as editor of our Conference Annual is easily manifest. We recommend his reappointment to that position, and authorize him to issue 3,600 copies, and 100 more, if he deem them needed.

We request the Conference Commission on Finance to apportion the sum of $600.00 to meet any deficit that may occur in the publication of the Annual.

We recommend the re-election of Rev. J. B. Winn, D.D., and Brother J. T. Catlin as members of the Board of Managers of the Advocate Publishing Company, and of Brother H. A. Barrow to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Brother C. E. Wilson.

As pleased as we are to hear of the growth of our general and conference organs, we urge a more extended circulation of them, and of the periodicals of our Church, also the pamphlets of Rev. H. H. Smith.

The reappointment of Rev. J. S. Hunter as Field Agent of the Publishing House is recommended.

T. O. EDWARDS,
Chairman.

Report of Virginia Conference Financial Director of Educational Movement.

To the Conference Committee on the Educational Movement:

I beg to submit herewith financial report embodying the work of the ten Districts of the Conference in connection with the recent canvass of the Conference membership for this great cause, as provided by General Conference action in 1918, showing recorded pledges in the total sum of $1,-569,171.

The figures given are those reported by District Directors and Elders up to and including Thursday, October 14th, and may be considered authentic and final, although there may be a few preachers who will follow the old method of bringing memoranda up to Conference.

Time is too valuable to use in discussing the inauspicious season through which we have passed. I will say, however, that I believe without doubt the period allotted for the canvass, viz: May to July, was the season of the greatest depression of all, for it was then that even the produce crops of the rural people proved worthless for the lack of buying power, say nothing of the acute conditions of despond in which the holder found himself with his peanuts, cotton, tobacco, and grain.

Too much cannot be said of the love and devotion and faith of many of the country charges, whose attitude to this great cause was even more than could be expected of them under existing conditions; this notwithstanding the fact that there were some charges that set themselves against the command of the Church from the beginning, and would not be moved.

No, our failure to answer 100 per cent, as has always been the custom of Virginia Methodism, was not due to the failure of the poor among us, nor to those who lost heavily by the season of world-wide depression, but rather to many of the able and well-to-do who were unwilling to see in this effort the supreme opportunity of a generation to put their shoulders to the wheel and thus lead others to meet the supreme test to which their Church was put.

You will note that the Conference has reported 85 per cent. of its quota, for which final result we thank God and take courage. The work truly ought to be finished and it can be done.

In closing this report, I desire to record the deep appreciation felt by this office for the patient, loyal and devoted service of the men selected to bear largely the burden of this task. I refer to the District Financial Directors and Presiding Elders, Brother F. L. Wells, and also the Educational Secretary. Never had men a more uninviting task or colder trail to follow than they, and yet they did not waver, but actually gave of themselves to the cause that these splendid results might be made possible.

I cannot refrain from speaking of the most extraordinary achievement of the Portsmouth, Petersburg and Farmville Districts. The result shown in the itemized report (raising their quota in full) speak for themselves, but possibly no one will ever know the labor and sacrifice represented therein.

Respectfully submitted,

T. S. SOUTHGATE,

Conference Financial Director.

Report of the Virginia Conference Sunday School Board.

The Sunday School work of our Conference is going forward in a most gratifying manner. While the Board is promoting every phase of the work, we have during the past year been laying emphasis especially on more thorough organization of the work in the local school on the charge and on the district; on the training of workers; on better equipment and on Children's Week. It is gratifying to be able to report that a very substantial progress has been made along all of these lines.

Our Sunday Schools are more thoroughly grading their work and are making provision for the separation of departments in order that the pupils may be given a better chance for their development. Fifty-nine separate departments have been organized during the past year.

In order to enable all the Sunday Schools on the Circuit to unite on a common program, we have been promoting the circuit Sunday School organization. This organization is for the purpose of bringing about co-operation among the schools and helping each of the schools to raise their Standard of Work. We now have thirty-two circuits organized and these are doing very effective work.

Our volunteer district officers are rendering very effective service. We now have thirty-three of these volunteers who, during the year visited 194 schools, held 85 special meetings with workers and traveled 3,463 miles. We are delighted with the fact that our Conference leads our Church in a constructive program of training leaders. We now have established eight Standard District Training Schools in addition to our Conference Training School, and we are also establishing three or four day Study Conferences or Training Schools at some centres where we cannot hold a regular Standard Training School of one week. During the past year 1,108 persons enrolled in the five Standard Schools held and 133 persons enrolled in Study Conferences. In addition to this we had 164 individual students to enroll in Training work, 66 classes were organized in local Churches with an enrollment of 690. Our records indicate that we have at present 2,778 workers in our Conference enrolled in Training work. During the past year these workers have taken 2,048 Teacher Training credits. Three schools have been awarded Reading Course Certificates and ten schools have been awarded the Reading Course Seals, indicating that every officer and teacher of these schools have read at least one book on Sunday School work during the year.

Our Conference School held at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, in June, was a splendid success. We had 257 to enroll, 52 of whom were ministers. Every district in the Conference was represented. This year the Conference school was under the joint direction of our Board and the Board of Missions. We are glad to report that this combination worked to our mutual advantage, and we were highly pleased with the results. We had 35 workers to attend the Training School at Lake Junaluska.

A Training School lasting for nearly two months during the spring was conducted in Richmond at the John Marshall High School, in which eighty enrolled. We should like to mention in this connection, a two months Training School conducted by our Church at Rocky Mount during August and September by local workers. The attendance at that school was 40 and the results were unusually good.

There is, at the present time, very great interest in Sunday School building and equipment. Many of our large Churches in the Conference are now either erecting or preparing to erect modern Sunday School buildings with provision for full departmental work. Other Churches are remodelling their equipment to meet the needs of the modern Sunday School, and a number of our small Churches in the towns or on circuits are actively engaged in improving their present plants or erecting new buildings to meet the needs of their Sunday School. It is our desire to so assist in all of these building operations that the best equipment may be secured and that the actual needs of the Sunday School may be met. Our Conference superintendents have held 50 meetings with building committees during the year. In this connection, we should like to call special attention to the exhibit we have had prepared of Buildings that will meet the needs of the modern Sunday School. These plans can be seen while here at the Conference or they can be seen at any time at our office.

This is our first year to cooperate in the celebration of Children's Week. Under the direction of our Conference Elementary Superintendent, a very thorough program was worked out and a large number of schools carried out this program with splendid effect. More than 50 schools observed the week rather thoroughly and secured therefrom beneficial and permanent results. The needs of the Sunday School were emphasised in these meetings and the effect has been to increase the number of departments that are doing Standard Work. There are now 113 Elementary departments up to Standard.

In addition to the work of our Conference officers and district officers, we have had the very effective assistance of about 25 leading Sunday School workers in our effort to respond to every call possible. Through the combined work of these forces we have been able during the past year to reach, by all methods, 687 schools. We have had 110 Wesley Bible classes organized and have sent out 70,000 copies of printed matter. Ninety-two special meetings were held with workers, and District Institutes were held on nine of the districts.

We are very grateful for the splendid cooperation that has been given by the presiding elders and the pastors as well as our Sunday School workers.

Our Sunday School Day record for the year was very gratifying. We furnished to the schools 8,000 programs. Twenty-six charges raised more than $50.00 on Sunday School Day. Forty-five circuits had every Sunday School on the circuit to observe the Day and make an offering. We have placed the names of these circuits and charges on an Honor Roll and the names will be published in the Richmond Christian Advocate. We wish to call attention to the fact that West Brunswick charge on the Petersburg District again leads the Conference in the Sunday School Day offering.

In connection with our report we should like to mention the Vacation Schools held this summer, one by our Cumberland St. Church, Norfolk, with an attendance of 48; and one held at Mt. Vernon Church, Danville, in cooperation with the First Presbyterian Church, with an attendance of 250: We also desire to mention the Week Day work being done by our Onancock school.

The Statistical reports show that we have had a gain of thirteen Sunday Schools during the year, an increase in enrollment of 8,449; an increase in the total amount raised by the Sunday Schools of $36,599. This is the largest increase in enrollment we have ever had in one year. We now have 837 Sunday Schools with a total enrollment of 126,280 and the total raised by the Sunday Schools last year was $260,150.00. 5,481 pupils joined the Church; and $55,872 was contributed to Missions.

We should like to make the following recommendations as a part of our program for the coming year:

First. We desire to call upon all of our schools to thoroughly grade their work and provide for separate departments for the elementary and secondary divisions just as rapidly as possible.

Second: We would urge every Sunday School to have a regular Workers' Council meeting. We wish to say that this is imperative in the departmental school if it is to maintain its unity and carry forward a constructive program.

Third: The Circuit Sunday School Organization has proved such a success that we now request every circuit to unite its forces in such an organization and meet regularly at least four times a year.

Fourth: It is a well recognized fact that the greatest need of the Sunday School is training workers and we make a most earnest appeal to our presiding elders, pastors and Sunday School leaders to aid us in enlisting the workers on every charge in the Teacher Training course. Our records show that 230 of the 824 schools are now doing something in this Course. This year we should at least raise this number to 400.

Fifth: We expect to maintain the eight Standard Training Schools now in operation and we hope during the year to establish at least ten centres for Study Conferences or Junior Training Schools. We expect to hold our Conference School at Randolph-Macon Woman's College and we would recommend that every Church provided for the expenses of at least one representative to this school.

Sixth: Every school should give special attention to its three-fold program; that is, Instruction in Knowledge, Training in Service, and Training in Worship, and to this end we would urge our pastors and superintendents to see that their school takes advantage of every moment of its session and the provision is made for this three-fold task. A regular program should be prepared for the devotional service and graded lessons should be introduced in the Primary and Beginner Departments as soon as possible those schools that are not now using them.

Seventh: Children's Week has proved so valuable to those schools that have observed it that we now recommend that every school observe Children's Week this coming year. We will furnish programs free of charge for all schools that will observe any part of the week.

Eighth: We again call attention to the necessity for the closest co-operation between our office and building Committees in the matter of planning for the erection of new buildings or the remodelling of present buildings to be used for Sunday school purposes. We feel that many mistakes can be avoided and better equipment can be secured by this cooperation.

Ninth: Because of our enlarged program and the necessity for securing additional help, we appeal to our Sunday School workers throughout the Conference to stress Sunday School Day and seek to secure a most liberal offering. It is necessary for us to have some additional help this year, at least during the summer months and we are confident the Sunday Schools will assist us in carrying out this program. We will again have an Honor Roll of all charges that report an offering of $100.00 or more on Sunday School Day and another for all charges that report an offering of $50.00 or more on Sunday School Day.

Tenth: We suggest the following Circuit Honor Roll for the year:

- (1). Every School open throughout the year.
- (2). A Circuit Sunday School Organization holding regular meetings.
- (3). At least one representative from the charge at the Conference School.
- (4). Sunday School Day by every School.
- (5). At least one person from each School enrolled in Teacher Training work during the year.

Eleventh: We request every School to order a sufficient number of "The Church School" (Magazine of Methods) for every teacher and officer to have the use of it.

Miss Ethel Smither has been elected Elementary Superintendent and we respectfully request the presiding Bishop to appoint J. H. Montgomery as Conference Superintendent.

Respectfully submitted,
JAS. P. JONES,
Chairman.

Epworth League Report

Someone has defined the League as, "The younger membership of the Church organized for Christian fellowship and functioning in all departments of Christian work." The need of such an organization is recognized by all. The growth of the League has been phenomenal, and the life and power which it has put into the Church in recent years cannot be estimated. In the great forward step of the Church, the Centenary and Educational movements, that have startled the world by the results which they have achieved, the young people of the League have done their part. More than that, fired with Pentecostal zeal, they are volunteering their bright young lives to the extension of God's Kingdom in home and foreign lands, without which sacrifice all gifts of money, however lavish, would be useless.

The report of the General Secretary shows twenty per cent. increase last year in Chapters, and a total of two hundred and one thousand and forty-eight dollars raised for all purposes, of which the sum of sixty-five thousand two hundred and fifty dollars was devoted to the Africa Special. In our own Conference the League spirit and progress is very gratifying. The summer Conferences of the League are marked by high intellectual ability and spiritual power. The Presiding Elder of the Richmond District reports a class of seventy-five who have volunteered for life service. One church in Norfolk which organized a League about three years ago, has seven of its finest young people in the Life Service band. Three young men from this Church are studying for the ministry at Randolph-Macon College.

We offer the following resolutions:

RESOLVED. 1. That the Virginia Conference give the League at least a part of one night during its next session for a League program.

2. That our preachers be urged to organize Leagues in their Churches wherever possible.
3. That we urge our preachers who have no Leagues to preach a sermon on Young Peoples Day and take a collection for the League.
4. That we pledge our hearty support to the new Field Secretary in the prosecution of the work during the coming year.

JAMES H. MOSS,
Chairman.

Bible Society Board

The Bible has been, and is, the main factor in our civilization, and the inspirer of every noble institution. Wesley said, "I am a creature of a day, passing through life as an arrow through the air. I want to know one thing—the way to heaven; how to land safe on that happy shore. God himself has condescended to teach the way. He hath written it down in a book. Oh, give me that book. At any price give me the book of God. I have it; here is knowledge enough for me. Let me be a man of one book."

Andrew Jackson's dying tribute to the Bible was, "That Book, Sir, is the rock on which our republic rests."

In view of the vast ignorance of a large per cent of the scholars in our Sunday Schools of the Bible, and its contents, we most urgently recommend that the teachers in our Sunday Schools use their influence to get their scholars to read all the portions of scripture as outlined by the International Committee for daily readings, daily, and that each scholar be urged to own a copy of the Bible.

We recommend that Bible Sunday, November 27th, be observed in all our churches, in so far, as it is practicable to do so and that a special offering be taken for the Bible Society and that all money collected on that day for the Society be sent to Rev. M. B. Porter, Secretary of the South Atlantic Agency, Richmond, Virginia.

The American Bible Society is the greatest Agency on the American Continent for the distribution of the Word of God, and it merits the confidence and support of all our people.

In view of all the American Bible Society has done, and is doing, and of the great possibilities before it, and of its urgent need for funds to carry on its work both at home and in the foreign field:

Be it resolved by the Virginia Conference that our preachers be urged to inform the people of the great work of the Society and its need, and urge them to more liberal contributions for the support and that the Treasurer of the Conference send all money collected for the Society to Rev. M. B. Porter, Agency Secretary.

Temperance and Social Reform

At the close of another conference year, your Board of Temperance and Social Reform is more convinced than ever of the utter lawlessness and criminality of the liquor traffic, and of the necessity of stringent enforcement of the prohibition law for the protection of our people and of our civilization. The Board is also convinced of the benefits and blessings of prohibition, so far as it has been put into effect, and that prohibition is here to stay.

LAWLESSNESS

During the past year there have been many convincing proofs of the fact that the liquor elements is absolutely defiant of all law and order that may get in its way. The cutting down of the State appropriation and the reduction of the prohibition forces in the fight against this lawlessness has encouraged illicit distillers, bootleggers, and consumers to greater boldness in flagrant violations of law. Such violations have been so frequent and disgusting that some have said that the prohibition law is a failure and should be repealed. As well grow weak when we read the headlines in our newspapers of frequent killings here and there, and say that the law against murder is a failure and should be repealed. But for law against crime there could be no civilization or safety. For strong, illustrious, influential America to give way to any vicious element, and say that she cannot enforce a law on her statute books, would be a crime against civilization and against a world that is looking to her for leadership.

This lawlessness and anarchy of the liquor forces must be crushed, or national corruption and decadence will prevail. The prohibition officers in the field seem to be faithful to their task, and are doing much to check this evil; but with inadequate forces and means they are unable to cover the territory and to prevent the breaking down of the law at many points. We believe that every officer who has to do with the enforcement of law, whether to be a special agent of prohibition or not, should be required to enforce prohibition law, or be severely punished for winking at its violation.

Prohibition is on trial and in peril. The liquor forces are doing their utmost to discredit prohibition, hoping to bring about a repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. The Anti-Saloon League, which has fought so nobly and victoriously, is in the midst of an unfinished task, and should have the loyal and unremitting support of every enemy of the liquor traffic. Never was the League more needed than now. It has toiled faithfully through the stages of agitation, education, organization and legislation. It is now struggling through the stage of law enforcement. We cannot afford to slacken our efforts or allow this organization to grow weak at this crucial time in the fight. We must go on until law enforcement is firmly established as a settled policy in all parts of our land.

PROHIBITION SUCCESS

In spite of all lawlessness and chaotic conditions, prohibition is winning its way and gloriously succeeding. This is seen in the reduction of the number of inmates in penitentiaries, jails, and almshouses. It is seen in the closing of Neal institutes for the treatment of the "drink habit." During the 12 years before the Volstead act became effective these institutes treated more than 125,000 drinking men and women. The institutes that are still running do not average two patients a month. The president of these institutions is now devoting all of his time to another business.

Another proof of the fact that prohibition is a success and is here to stay is found in the greater determination of the people to elect to public office those who will stand for the enforcement of prohibition law.

We rejoice also in the fact that the idea of prohibition is growing in favor with the nations, and that the prospect for a dry world is brightening.

There are other evils and problems which need consideration and solution at the hands of the Church.

THE DIVORCE EVIL

One of the crying evils which should arrest our attention is the growing tendency to treat with lightness the sacredness of the marriage tie. We note with sorrow the rapid increase in the number of divorces granted in our State. Last year the number of marriages in Virginia decreased while the number of divorces increased. In Richmond alone in 1920 there were granted in the courts 556 divorces, which was one divorce to every 4.36 marriages. This is a great increase over previous years. If this steady increase continues, it will not be long before we shall have as many divorces as marriages, the sacredness of marriage and home will be ruthlessly cast aside, and our civilization will trail in the dust.

The Church can do much to remedy this evil by prayer and preaching and by discouraging and discountenancing divorce everywhere. When the home fails to function, the Church must come to its rescue and supplement its ministry to the social life of the world.

THE RACIAL PROBLEM

Another problem which cries unto the Church for consideration and solution is the problem of the moral assimilation of the races among us. Our present foreign-born population in the United States is about 17,000,000, and there are about 20,000,000 more of immediate foreign extraction. Much has been done by the churches to Americanize and Christianize this great foreign element, but more must be done, or we shall be overwhelmed with paganism. Mr. Roosevelt once said concerning the immigrants to this country: "Either they will rise or we shall sink."

While the Church in America is properly busying herself with the sending of the Gospel to the peoples beyond the sea, she should in nowise lose sight of her responsibility for the millions of foreigners who live within her borders.

We are gratified at what has been done by the Inter-racial Commission to create a better relationship between the white and colored races in our land. Much more needs to be done. The negroes among us need better housing, better sanitary conditions, better educational facilities, and greater justice in the courts of the land. Justice is the only ground of cooperation between the two races. Only the Christian ideal of brotherhood can solve any problem which may exist, bring about right relationship, and establish good will and co-operation on the ground of justice.

In view of present-day conditions and needs, we offer for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That we continue with unabated interest our fight against the traffic in ardent spirits until that traffic is no longer a menace to our people, and that we will not scrap or weaken the great organization called the Anti-Saloon League in the midst of its great task, but will stand by it with prayer and effort and means, and offer to the superintendent of our State League, Rev. David Hepburn, our heartiest co-operation.
2. That we stand ready to co-operate with the Hon. Harry B. Smith, the Prohibition Commissioner, in the enforcement of prohibition law.
3. That we request the General Assembly of Virginia to enact some law that will afford protection for prohibition officers in the performance of their duty. We request also that the Deal Warrant Law shall be repealed. And we further request that adequate appropriation be made for the enforcement of prohibition law.
4. That all our ministers preach on the sacredness of matrimony and home, and on the evils of divorce, and strictly adhere to our disciplinary requirement not to remarry any divorced person except on the one Scriptural ground.
5. That by extension or reorganization of our forces we will seek to bring every family within our territory definitely within the range of Gospel ministration and influence, irrespective of race.
6. That we are unalterably opposed to mob violence as inhuman and unworthy of a Christian civilization, and that all problems arising between the white and colored races should be settled by the application of Christian principles of justice, co-operation and brotherhood.
7. That we co-operate with the Inter-racial Commission for a better understanding and a more sympathetic relationship between the races, and commend the method of conference and co-operation between white and colored leaders in local communities.
8. That we note with anxiety the many and serious desecrations of our Lord's Day, and we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to protect the sanctity of the Sabbath that everybody may have one day of rest in seven and an opportunity to worship in the house of God.
9. That we give ourselves to prayer for the Disarmament Conference to be held in Washington in November that out of it may come, by divine guidance, something real and permanent for the relief of a war-stricken world.
10. That we respectfully request the ensuing Legislature to repeal the law permitting gambling at Agricultural Fairs and other places by wheels of fortune and other devices for things of value.
11. That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. Sidney Peters as representative of the Anti-Saloon League.

THOS. E. JOHNSON, Secretary.

H. W. DUNKLEY, Chairman.

Board of Managers of the Advocate Publishing Company

The Board of Managers of the Advocate Publishing Company begs leave to submit the following report for the year ending October 1, 1921:

Perhaps in the history of the newspaper business, there has never been a more trying year than the one through which we have just passed; it was unprecedented. The unusual conditions were not merely local, but well-nigh universal. Nearly all the larger Paper Mills in the country were forced to shut down on account of insufficient railroad facilities for transportation, and labor strikes. This brought about a shortage in print paper, and forced the price of paper up to its highest limit. The Advocate was compelled to pay as high as sixteen cents per pound for some of the paper used, that formerly sold as low as six cents per pound. In addition to the closing of the Mills, there was a general strike among the linotype men for increase in wages, which increased the cost of printing very considerably. This was followed by a general depression in business, which resulted in a number of discontinuances to the paper. These facts, coupled with the ill-health of the Editor for the greater part of the Conference year, threw a heavy burden upon the Business Manager, who not only had to manage the business end of the paper, but had also to edit the paper (for several months). This burden was too great for any one man to carry successfully, which necessitated the employment of additional help to do the Editorial work, thereby increasing the expense of the publication of the paper.

The present circulation of the paper is 7,500, with an average for the year of 7,800 copies. The paper market is better, and the future is more hopeful for cheaper paper.

We wish to express our full appreciation of the work of Rev. J. R. Laughton, who rendered such valuable services in the Editorial Department.

The Board has to note, with regret and sorrow, the continued ill-health of Dr. G. H. Lambeth, the Editor, and owing to his inability to continue his former relation to the paper, it becomes necessary for the Board to recommend another to take his place.

We, therefore, suggest that Rev. J. M. Rowland be appointed as Editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate and George F. Greene, as Business Manager.

Feeling that the paper should be in the home of every family of the Virginia Conference, your Board recommends that the subscription price be reduced to $2.00 per year, and the Editor and Manager be given the privilege, in their discretion, to offer the paper in clubs of twenty-five for $1.50 per year, cash subscription.

If we are to succeed in making our church paper a success and self-sustaining, there must be a more cordial and sympathetic co-operation on the part of preachers and laymen of the Conference. The paper belongs to the church, and as the Conference organ, we should stand behind it and support it. If we could collect the money from subscriptions past due, we would show a credit on our books instead of a deficit. During the past year more than three thousand personal statements were sent out from the office to subscribers, which resulted in only a very meager financial return.

We believe our preachers could be of great assistance to us in getting these renewals, and we urgently ask their co-operation.

We submit the following financial report, covering the period of eleven months, the Conference year, from November 1st to October 1st, 1921.

Orphanage Report

With deep sorrow we chronicle a triple loss sustained this past Conference year, by Virginia Methodism and the Orphanage, in the lamented death of three valued members of the Board of Trustees of this institution.

Mr. C. E. Wilson of Crewe, after a long and painful illness, passed away on April 5th; General J. Thompson Brown, of Richmond, whose health had been failing for the past twelve months, departed this life on April 3rd; and Capt. John L. Roper, of Norfolk, died suddenly at Fredericksburg, Va., while on his way to his country residence in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Wilson had been a Trustee of the Orphanage for about 2 years only, but during his brief connection with our work, had manifested a lively and practical interest in its affairs.

Brother Brown, whose term of office was longer, also served as a faithful and efficient member of the Executive Committee.

Capt. Roper, who was one of the Charter Members of the Board of Trustees, was a member of the Executive committee until the day of his death, was Vice-President of the institution for many years, and for 2 years just preceding his death was our President.

To the generosity of Capt. Roper the Orphanage is indebted for its fine central heating plant, its magnificent double set of playground apparatus, and together with a living member of our Board for the new printing shop. We shall sorely miss the wise counsel and practical interest and sympathy of these departed brethren. Their works do follow them.

"God buries His workmen, but carries on His work," and in spite of these sad losses we are gratified to be able to report that the affairs of your Orphanage are progressing favorably.

The health of the children has been fairly good. Our Superintendent reports a growing interest in our work throughout the Conference, evidenced by the unanimity with which our many visitors comment favorably when they see for themselves the contented and happy condition of the children under our care, the character and quality of the work done for and with them, and the opportunities and privileges at their disposal, as well as by increased donations over and above the Annual Conference assessment, which are invariably cheerfully given by the members of our Churches, wherever and whenever an opportunity is afforded.

You will be gratified to learn that excellent reports reach us of our ex-boys and girls, with whom we try to keep in touch. These proteges of the Church are reflecting credit on their Church and old home, and making new friends for the orphanage, wherever they go.

You will be gratified also to learn that practically every child at the orphanage, [who has reached the years of discretion, has made a profession of religion and united with our Church.

The printing plant continues to prosper, and is doing good work, both for the boys and girls who are learning a useful and self-supporting business, and for the Orphanage from a financial standpoint.

Apart from any profits arising from the Guardian, our monthly publication, the circulation of which last month was 10,000 copies and over, the Printing Plant is this year making a handsome profit, all of which will of course be turned over to the Orphanage treasury as customary. The installation of the Linograph, made possible through a special raised fund by the many friends of the Orphanage, has been a great help to us in the past, and will be of still greater service in the future.

We point with pride to the fact that the character and quality of our work have earned us a good reputation, and consequently we are kept busy all the time.

The [new cottage for girls, to be named The Hartley Memorial Cottage, in memory of the late Mr. E. B. Hartley of Stony Creek, is about completed. We invite the Conference and visitors to pay a visit to the institution before returning home. The Hartley Cottage will enable us to take care of 40 to 45 additional girls, so that in a few weeks now there will be 200 destitute and orphan white children under the care of Virginia Methodism. There is at this moment pressing and imperative need for another new cottage for boys. Scores of applications for the admission of boys never reach our Committee on Admissions for the simple reason that we are overcrowded all the time.

We return thanks to Almighty God for the favor of His past great blessings upon our labors, and wait confidently for the day when the great Virginia Annual Conference will measure up to her enormous privileges, and provide a good home for every orphan and helpless child who stands at her gates crying for admission.

From the Statistical Report, which has already been published in THE GUARDIAN, we furnish the information, that at the end of our last fiscal year:

Our assets were $236,870.34. Our liabilities nil.

There were in the institution 72 boys and 83 girls, a total of 155. The same total number are there to-day.

The per capita cost for Support, Education, Clothing, and Training was $154.48, or 43 cents per day.

We submit for confirmation by the Annual Conference, as Trustees of the Orphanage, the names of:

Mrs. W. H. Vincent of Capron, Va.,

Mrs. C. E. Wilson of Crewe, Va., and

Col. Lucius Gregory of Chase City, Va.

We offer the following for adoption:

Resolved that it is the sense of this body that gifts made to our orphanage, or raised for Endowment, or Building Funds, Christmas or Sunday School Collections, or other special purposes, should not be charged against the Annual Conference Assessment, upon which the Orphanage depends absolutely for the care, education and support of the children already in the institution.

We respectfully request our Presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. J. Wiley Bledsoe, D.D., Field Agent, and Arthur B. Sharpe, Superintendent of the Conference Orphanage.

ARTHUR B. SHARPE, Secretary.

JNO. P. PETTYJOHN,
President.

CONFERENCE ENDOWMENT FUND

The balance in hand one year ago to the credit of this fund was$ 252 49

By order of the Directors this amount was placed with the Trust Company of Norfolk on Certificate of Deposit, November 15, 1920, bearing interest at the rate of four percent per annum.

Examined and found correct:

A. L. EGGLESTON,
Auditing Committee.

With regard to the legacy of five thousand dollars from the estate of the late Captain E. V. White, a member of this board, I have to report that there has been unexpected delay in realizing upon certain real estate on which this and some other legacies to benevolent objects are dependent; but I am told by the executor that the prospect is fair for a satisfactory settlement at no distant day.

During the past Conference year one of the most honored and faithful members of this Board of Directors has passed from our company to his eternal reward. Brother John Walton Granby died at his home in Norfolk on the ninth of May, 1921, aged 82 years. He was elected a Director of this Society in November, 1907, and served until his decease—a period of nearly fourteen years. He took the deepest interest in the welfare of the Society, attended its meetings whenever possible, gave judicious advice in the management of its finances, and rendered gladly any service that tended to the relief of the beneficiaries of the Society's funds. He was a faithful member of the Ghent Church, Norfolk, being one of its original organizers, and was often elected to District and Annual Conferences, and served in the delegation to the General Conference, in May, 1906. The memory of this faithful servant of God and of the Church will long be cherished by those who knew him.]

Respectfully Submitted,
J. T. WHITLEY,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Report of Investigating Committee

We, your committee, appointed to investigate the charges against H. W. Neville, find a trial necessary.

Charge: Immorality.

Specifications:

1. Untruthfulness.

(1) In the matter of application for position of superintendent of school of Patrick County.

(2) In statements made in the pulpit at Stuart, Va., as to the amount of his indebtedness at Urbanna and elsewhere.

(3) In the matter of his leaving his work at Stuart, Va.

2. Misappropriation and mishandling of church funds at Urbanna, particularly concerning a check of $50.00 on account of pledge made by Clarksburg Sunday School of said charge.

We appoint Rev. Thomas R. Reeves to prosecute this case.

(Signed) BOYD E. HUDSON,
J. W. GEE,
HUGH J. PAYLOR.

Resolutions on Near East Relief

WHEREAS, Reports from the Near East reveal an appalling multitude of women and children in need of food and clothing. A cry that up to the present hours has not been adequately answered, in spite of the commendable and continued generosity of our people.

AND WHEREAS, More than one hundred thousand of these are the orphaned children of martyred Christian parents of Bible Lands who look to us for the means to live and to prepare themselves to carry forward the sacred traditions and holy ideals of their ancient national life.

AND WHEREAS, The withholding of this support by American Christians would not only endanger their lives but menace the cause of Christian missions and civilization in those lands.

AND WHEREAS, The recent annual report of the Near East Relief as presented to the Congress of the United States, by which it is chartered, reveals a conscientious and efficient administration of the trust imposed and a most encouraging accomplishment of the task thus far.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the VIR-GINIA CONFERENCE again go on record as heartily approving the purpose and programe of the Near East Relief to save the lives of orphaned children and to secure the release of imprisoned womanhood and their restoration to kith and kindred with a view to the rehabilitation of these nations.

That, We approve and endorse the appeal of the Near East Relief unto our churches and congregations and that we do all in our power to carry out the programe outlined by the State Committee and give one service to the Near East Relief this year at the time set by the said Committee.

THAT, We commend the cause and work of the Near East Relief to the sympathetic cooperation of every organization and individual in our churches.

THAT, We the servants of HIM who gave his life to relieve suffering and to purify the world, go on record as protesting the manner in which the foreign governments and the Great Powers have permitted such a condition to exist and to call upon the Government of the United States to make representation to Turkey to immediately stop their unwarranted persecutions.

Memorials to the General Conference which were Adopted by the Virginia Conference

Number 2

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to eliminate the word SOUTH from the name "Methodist Episcopal Church, SOUTH, and select such a name for our Church, as shall meet the approval of said General Conference.

(Signed)

LEE G. CRUTCHFIELD,
AND OTHERS.

Number 6

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to make provision, in determining the membership of all our General Boards, so that at least two-thirds of the clerical members, not including the Bishops, shall at the time of their election be preachers in charge of circuits, mlssions, or stations.

(Signed)

J. M. ROWLAND,
THOS. R. REEVES.

Number 7

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to incorporate in Chapter III, Section III, of the Discipline the following:

It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elder to discuss with each preacher on his district the preacher's appointment for the ensuing Conference year, and to make faithful representation of the preacher's views to the Bishop and his Cabinet.

(Signed)

G. H. NEWBURY,
J. A. CHAPMAN, AND OTHERS.

Number 8

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to authorize the publication, by our Publishing House, of a loose-leaf Quarterly Conference Record book, said book to be sufficiently large to care for the records of three or more quardrenniums.

(Signed)

C. E. BLANKENSHIP,
S. J. BROWN,
L. HUNTER EARLY.

Number 9

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to make the following changes in the order of business of a Quarterly Conference:

1. Substitute for the present form of Ques. 3, the following:

"What amount has been estimated by the Board of Stewards of this charge for the support of the pastor (and his assistant,) and what has been apportioned to this charge by the District Stewards for the Presiding Elder, and how have these amounts been apportioned to the Churches?"

2. Change Question 4, to read as follows:

"What amount has been apportioned to this charge by the District Stewards for other purposes, and how has this amount been apportioned to the Churches?"

(Signed) C. E. BLANKENSHIP,
S. J. BROWN.

Number 10

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to consider the feasibility and desirability of establishing, under the auspices of the General Board of Church Extension, a Mutual Church Insurance Association, for the protection of our Church property.

(Signed) C. E. BLANKENSHIP,
O. C. RUCKER.

Number 11

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to authorize the preparation of a brief and simple course, with suggested parallel readings, on church efficiency and Methodist history, suitable for the specific instruction of the stewards and other official members of our church.

(Signed) C. E. BLANKENSHIP,
GEO. P. ADAMS.

Number 12

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to amend the Discipline so as to make it the duty of a Presiding Elder to make a written report to the superintending Bishop of his Conference, every three months, said report to cover his activities for the preceding quarter, and any other items of interest concerning the work of his district.

(Signed) C. E. BLANKENSHIP,
J. W. MOORE.

Number 15

Resolved: (1). That the Virginia Conference memorialize the General Conference to create a commission of five or more for investigations and recommendations for such a reform in the modern system of Education as will give the spiritual nature of man a place of as much prominence at least in the curriculum as the intellectual, and that it be specifically provided that the education of the spiritual nature shall begin at the same time as that of the intellectual, and that it shall continue co-ordinate to the end of the course of education.

(2). That the Methodist Episcopal Church and all other denominations be requested to co-operate by the creation of like commissions on spiritual education.

(Signed) E. H. ROWE,
J. B. WINN, AND OTHERS.

Number 16—Section 1

We memorialize our next General Conference either to combine or co-ordinate the work of Religious Education in our Church so that much of the present over-lapping of work may be eliminated.

(Offered by the Conference Sunday School Board.)

Number 17

We memorialize the General Conference that the General Board of Church Extension provide an Advisory Board on Church and Sunday School building plans, to be composed of some of the full-time Sunday School workers actively engaged in field work and competent architects, and that all new plans for Sunday School buildings be submitted to the members of the Advisory Board before receiving help from the Board of Church Extension and that those churches not asking for help be requested to submit their plans for new buildings and improvements to this Advisory Board so that such churches may receive the benefit of the suggestions of the said Board.

(Offered by the Conference Sunday School Board.)

Number 19

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference hereby memorialize the General Conference to change the discipline so that Bishops shall live within their Episcopal districts.

(Signed) W. B. BEAUCHAMP,
J. B. WINN.

Number 20

Whereas, The Episcopal form of superintendence is fundamental in our economy, and

Whereas, No other method can be substituted under our present economy, and

Whereas, Close and continuous superintendence is essential to efficient administration on our Mission fields.

Resolved, That the Virginia Conference now in session in Richmond, Va., respectfully memorialize The General Conference at its next session to enact such legislation as will require Bishops who may be appointed to our Mission fields to have their residence in the fields to which they are appointed.

(Signed) W. J. YOUNG,
E. H. RAWLINGS,
J. CALLAWAY ROBERTSON,
AND OTHERS.

Number 23

Resolved, That the General Conference be and is hereby memorialized to amend paragraph 121, answer 2, to read as follows:

To fix the appointments of the preachers in the Annual Conference: provided, every preacher shall have the right to place in the hands of his presiding elder a brief written statement giving such data as he deems essential to the fixing of his appointment intelligently and justly, and such statement shall be before the Bishop as information when said preacher's appointment is under consideration.

(Signed) G. C. KELLY,
J. W. DIXON,
J. J. BRADFORD.

Number 24

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference that the field men and the secretaries of the Annual Conferences be required to furnish a written report, quarterly, to their respective Boards, of the work they have done.

(Signed) H. P. CLARKE,
W. B. BEAUCHAMP,
SAMUEL L. DUMVILLE.

Number 25

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference memorialize the General Conference to set apart the quadrennium May 1922-26 for the raising of an Endowment Fund for the claimants on our Annual Conferences, fixing the minimum to be raised at $10,000,000 and that the said Endowment Fund be given right of way during this time.

(Signed) (Conference Board of Finance.)
WM. H. ATWILL, Chairman.
P. M. HANK, Secretary.

Number 26

Whereas, It is highly desirable that certain work in the Home Field should be set apart and designated as Home Mission Work under the direction of the Home Department of our General Board in order that young men and women may dedicate themselves to the same and after preparation therefor, devote themselves to such ministry; therefore, be it resolved, That we join in the Memorial from the representative of the Conference Mission Board proposed at their meeting at Junaluska, August 8th. 1921; "That the General Conference should designate certain groups and features of Mission Work in the homeland to be designated as Home Mission Work, which is to be supported and administered by the Home Department of the Board of Missions on the consent and approval of the Conference Boards, and that candidates for such work should be accepted by the Candidate Committee and appointed on the same terms as those of Foreign Mission Workers. And that all other Mission work in the Annual Conference be under the Conference Board of Missions."

(Signed) C. O. TUTTLE,
For the Conference Board of Missions.

Number 29

Resolved, That the Virginia Annual Conference hereby memorialize the General Conference to enact a law which shall require any member of our church—clerical or lay—making a complaint against a preacher for the purpose of preventing his return for another year to the charge which he is serving to make said complaint before the Quarterly Conference or the Board of Stewards. If the complaint be made during the session of the Annual Conference the presiding elder must notify the preacher of the nature of the complaint and the maker thereof.

(Signed) WM. H. ATWILL,
JESSE H. HOBBS,
T. J. C. HEATH.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College

1893 LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 1921

Randolph-Macon Woman's College has stood from the beginning for only reliable and thorough scholarship under the most wholesome Christian influences. This is the reason why it stands among the foremost Woman's Colleges in the country. This is the reason why on October 22, 1920, all present available rooms were engaged for the session 1921-22, and rooms are being engaged for succeeding years to 1924.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College invites investigation by friends of education, philanthropists, and prospective patrons who believe in strong, dependable College work for young women.

Randolph-Macon Institute

Danville, Virginia

The Institute offers the best advantages to a limited number.

The buildings are equipped with modern comforts and conveniences. An ideal home school. The boarding department has accommodations for 100 students, and these are constantly associated with the twenty-nine members of the faculty living in the building. The course of study meets fully the maximum college entrance requirements, and in addition, offers classes that allow those young ladies not wishing to go to college to get a well-rounded education. In addition to academic work, there are offered—

VOCAL MUSIC, PIANO, VIOLIN, ART, EXPRESSION,
COMMERCIAL COURSE AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The faculty is made up of experienced teachers—full graduates of the best colleges and universities. Rates are low for the advantages offered. For catalogue and further information, address—in life we must all have a purpose, whether it be good, bad or indifferent.

To Accomplish Anything

The gap between purpose and achievement can only be bridged over by conscientious endeavor—such endeavor as this store expends daily in its efforts to serve you with the utmost efficiency and dispatch. Our purpose is "Service," and to that end we leave no stone unturned.

The demands—no matter how heavy—shall never swerve this store from this purpose.
